

Certificate of Participation

We hereby confirm that Arman Maloian attended Yerevan 2018 – the 6th National Selection Conference of the European Youth Parliament (EYP) Armenia that took place from 25.10.2018 to 28.10.2018 as a delegate. The conference brought together more than 120 young people from Europe and various regions of Armenia.

During Yerevan 2018, Arman Maloian:

- proved his ability to work in a diverse international team in an open and tolerant manner and further developed her intercultural communication, problem-solving, and critical thinking skills,
- experienced the democratic decision-making process in a parliamentary setting,
- formed and expressed his own opinion and developed public speaking skills,
- expanded his knowledge on European political institutions and topics,
- improved his English language skills in controversial and challenging debates.

The European Youth Parliament, founded in 1987, is an international youth organisation that seeks to promote the European dimension in education and to give young people in Europe the opportunity to participate in a practical positive learning experience. Today the EYP is one of the largest European networks for political debate, intercultural encounters and the exchange of ideas among young people in Europe. The EYP network is present in 40 European countries, where thousands of young people are active as volunteers. The EYP's mission is to inspire and empower young Europeans to become open-minded, tolerant and active citizens and it is only through the engagement of young people like Arman Maloian that the EYP's mission becomes reality.

The activities of the EYP are under the patronage of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe. The President of the European Parliament and the President of the European Commission are members of our Comité d'Honneur.
